Elsie Cox Farmhouse
Lower Marlboro
Private

Late 19th century

This house is a two-story, three-bay gable front frame structure covered with plain lapped boards. There is a small one-story, one bay kitchen wing to one side. The house rests on concrete block foundations which are set directly upon the ground. Windows have six over six pane sashes and are located on either side of the front door. At the second story there is one window centered in the front wall. The main entrance consists of a plain door with five horizontal panels. The roof overhangs the walls on all sides and the gable front has a decorative scalloped barge board. There are also decorative brackets at the front of the eaves.
